LEFT — Little village of Rawsonville on the Huron river 35 years ago. Today all this has disappeared except the bridge at the right and the old Edwin Barlow home across the stream.